

TRUSTFORCE ADVISORS RESOURCE GUIDE

Fiduciary Glossary

Simple Definitions of Common Fiduciary, Trust, Conservatorship, and Guardianship Terms

Important disclaimer: TrustForce Advisors provides fiduciary support services and does not provide legal advice unless otherwise stated by a licensed attorney. These resources are for general educational and organizational purposes only. Laws, court requirements, fiduciary duties, and reporting rules may vary by state, court, agency, and case type. Always consult the court, your attorney, or a licensed professional regarding your specific situation.

Accounting

A financial report showing money received, money spent, assets owned, and balances remaining.

Agent

A person authorized to act for another person, often under a power of attorney.

Annual Report

A report filed with the court or agency summarizing actions taken during the year.

Asset

Anything owned that has value, such as money, real estate, vehicles, investments, or personal property.

Beneficiary

A person who receives benefits, money, property, or support from a trust, estate, account, or fiduciary arrangement.

Bond

A type of financial protection that may be required by the court to protect the person's assets.

Conservator

A person appointed by the court to manage money, property, assets, or financial affairs for another person.

Court Accounting

A formal financial report submitted to the court.

Fiduciary

A person or organization legally responsible for acting in another person's best interest.

Guardian

A person appointed to make personal, medical, housing, or care decisions for another person.

Guardian of the Estate

A person responsible for financial matters. In some places, this role is called a conservator.

Guardian of the Person

A person responsible for personal care, medical decisions, safety, and living arrangements.

Inventory

A list of assets owned by the person, estate, trust, or protected individual.

Letters of Conservatorship

Court-issued documents proving that a conservator has authority to act.

Protected Person

The person whose affairs are being managed by a guardian or conservator.

Receipt

Proof of payment or purchase.

Trust

A legal arrangement where assets are managed by a trustee for beneficiaries.

Trustee

A person or institution responsible for managing trust assets according to the trust document.

VA Fiduciary

A person or organization appointed to manage VA benefits for a veteran or beneficiary.

Need Help Managing Fiduciary Responsibilities?

TrustForce Advisors provides professional support for conservators, guardians, trustees, veteran fiduciaries, families and caregivers, attorneys, and professionals.

Schedule a consultation today.

(629) 258-7878 | Hello@TheTrustForce.com | TheTrustForce.com